DUBAI, 3rd July, 2017 (WAM) -- Dubai Land Department, DLD, has honoured its strategic partners, including real estate brokerage offices and several websites.

Speaking on the occasion, Yousif Al Hashimi, Deputy CEO of the Real Estate Regulatory Agency RERA, the regulatory arm of DL, said, "The aim of this event is to improve the efficiency of brokers in the real estate market by encouraging competition and incentivising them to provide the best services for investors and clients. This reflects our dedication to honouring all of our strategic partners and motivating them to deliver world-class services." PK Properties was the winner of the gold category, and representatives from seven websites were also honoured for enhancing the credibility of the real estate market, with a particular focus on those that have had a significant positive impact on DLD and reducing negative practices in the real estate market. The list of sites that received the award included Propertyfinder.ae, Yzerproperty.com, Realopedia.com, Propertywif.com, Bayut.com, Listaproperty.com, and Propertybook.com.

Al Hashimi concluded by saying, "We appreciate the important role played by real estate brokerage offices and websites in enhancing the credibility of the real estate market, as well as in promoting Dubai as one of the world's leading property destinations for trust, quality and transparency."
